The Most Holy Trinity

During his third voyage to the Americas, Christopher Columbus (1451-1506) landed on an island in the South Caribbean Sea on July 31, 1498. He called this island Trinidad to honor the Most Holy Trinity. Later, when Spanish explorer Alonso De Leon (1639-1691) established a Spanish mission in Texas, he gave the name 'Trinity' to the 550-mile-long river that flows through Texas from north to south. Like Columbus and De Leon, we continue to honor the Most Holy Trinity by giving the name 'Trinity' to some churches and educational institutions. Also, once a year, we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity to remember and honor the three persons in one God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. There is the story of a wealthy Jewish man who was also a militant atheist. He had a son he sent to 'Trinity School' to get a good education. After attending the school for a few days, the son said to his father casually, "Dad, now I know what Trinity means." "What does it mean?" the father asked him with a suspicious look on his face. "It means there are three persons in God," the boy replied, "the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit." Alarmed at the prospect of his son becoming a believer, he said, "Son, I am going to tell you something now, and I want you to remember it always. Forget the Trinity. There is only one God, and we don't even believe in him." This militant atheist was not an atheist. However, he had a tough time understanding the mystery of the Holy Trinity. That is why he was so vehement in his denial of the reality of the Holy Trinity. We cannot blame him for his lack of understanding of the Holy Trinity because we don't really understand this mystery either. Yes, we don't really understand this mystery. However, we genuinely believe in it because it has been revealed to us through the Holy Scriptures. Moreover, in our personal lives, we continue to experience the love of our heavenly Father, the saving grace of the Son, and the strengthening power of the Holy Spirit. Our faith, as well as our personal experience, assure us that God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit. (Fr. Jose P CMI).

La Santísima Trinidad

Durante su tercer viaje a las Américas, Cristóbal Colón (1451-1506) desembarcó en una isla en el Mar Caribe Sur el 31 de julio de 1498. Llamó a esta isla Trinidad en honor a la Santísima Trinidad. Más tarde, cuando el explorador español Alonso De León (1639-1691) estableció una misión española en Texas, le dio el nombre de "Trinidad" al río de 550 millas de largo que atraviesa Texas de norte a sur. Al igual que Colón y De León, continuamos honrando a la Santísima Trinidad dando el nombre de "Trinidad" a algunas iglesias e instituciones educativas. También, una vez al año, celebramos la fiesta de la Santísima Trinidad para recordar y honrar a las tres personas en un solo Dios: Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. Está la historia de un hombre judío rico que también era ateo militante. Tenía un hijo que envió a la 'Trinity School' para obtener una buena educación. Después de asistir a la escuela durante unos días, el hijo le dijo a su padre de manera casual: "Papá, ahora sé lo que significa Trinity". "¿Qué significa?" le preguntó el padre con una mirada sospechosa en su rostro. "Significa que hay tres personas en Dios", respondió el niño, "el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo". Alarmado ante la perspectiva de que su hijo se convirtiera en creyente, dijo: "Hijo, te voy a decir algo ahora y quiero que lo recuerdes siempre. Olvídense de la Trinidad. Hay un solo Dios, y ni siquiera creemos en él". Este ateo militante no era ateo. Sin embargo, le costó mucho entender el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad. Por eso fue tan vehemente en su negación de la realidad de la Santísima Trinidad. No podemos culparlo por su falta de comprensión de la Santísima Trinidad porque nosotros tampoco entendemos realmente este misterio. Sí, realmente no entendemos este misterio. Sin embargo, creemos genuinamente en él porque nos ha sido revelado a través de las Sagradas Escrituras. Además, en nuestra vida personal, continuamos experimentando el amor de nuestro Padre celestial, la gracia salvadora del Hijo y el poder fortalecedor del Espíritu Santo. Nuestra fe, así como nuestra experiencia personal, nos aseguran que Dios es Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. (P. José P. CMI).

La próxima segunda colecta es el domingo 12 de junio para mejoras capitales

Joke of the Week

“The undertaker!”

There is an old story about a henpecked husband who went to a psychologist. He was tired of being dominated by his wife. The psychologist told him, “You do not have to accept your wife’s bullying. You need to go home right now and let her know that you’re your own boss.” The husband decided to take the doctor’s advice. He went home and slammed the door on the way in. He confronted his wife and said, “From now on you’ll do what I say. Get my supper, then go upstairs and lay out my clothes. After I eat, I’m going out with the boys while you stay home. By the way, do you know who is going to tie my tie for me?” “I sure do,” said his wife calmly, “the undertaker!”

Some marriages are filled with conflict. So are some offices. The feast of the Holy Trinity challenges us to cultivate the Trinitarian relationship of love and unity in our families and offices, parishes, and classrooms.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Memorial Day Wreath Laying

The Tappahannock Assembly 3585 of the Knights of Columbus held a wreath laying service following the 9:30 am Mass on May 29th. A wreath was placed at the flagpole in front of the church along with flags representing all the branches of the military service. The ceremony was to commemorate the service of all veterans especially those who gave their all-in defense of our country.

The Knights also placed American Flags on the graves of all veterans in the area cemeteries. This patriotic event took place across the country by the local Knights in that area. If you would like to learn more about the patriotic activities of the Knights of Columbus or if you are interested in joining the Knights, please contact Ed Sullivan at desulliva@aol.com.
