Next weekend we will welcome Father Robert E. Nee, a Cross Catholic Outreach priest. He will share some touching stories about the amazing work Catholic missions are accomplishing worldwide.

This Catholic ministry mobilizes the global Catholic Church to transform the poor and their communities materially and spiritually through specific works of mercy in Christ's name. They connect U.S. parishes with priests, religious brothers and sisters, and Catholic laity serving the vulnerable in developing countries. Through this extremely cost effective program they bring food, water, shelter, education, orphan support, medical care, elderly care, microenterprise and disaster relief to the poorest of the poor.

Please consider donating to this worthy cause.

Last weekend I told you that the Parish Family of St. Timothy would like to help support the fund raiser for the Tappahannock Strong Committee. The committee is using the funds to aid the families who lost their homes in the fire as well as the employees of the businesses that were lost. We will take orders for the gear being sold this weekend, August 20 and 21. All orders must be accompanied by payment for items ordered. No refunds nor exchanges. There are two colors available—white and light blue. Checks are to be made out to "Tappahannock Strong."

El próximo fin de semana le daremos la bienvenida al Padre Robert E. Nee, un sacerdote de Cross Catholic Outreach. Compartirá algunas historias conmovedoras sobre el increíble trabajo que las misiones católicas están realizando en todo el mundo.

Este ministerio católico moviliza a la Iglesia católica global para transformar material y espiritualmente a los pobres y sus comunidades a través de obras específicas de misericordia en el nombre de Cristo. Conectan a las parroquias de EE. UU. con sacerdotes, hermanos y hermanas religiosos y laicos católicos que sirven a los vulnerables en los países en desarrollo. A través de este programa extremadamente rentable, brindan alimentos, agua, vivienda, educación, apoyo a los huérfanos, atención médica, cuidado de ancianos, microempresas y ayuda en casos de desastre a los más pobres de los pobres.

Por favor considere donar a esta noble causa.

El fin de semana pasado les dije que a la Familia Parroquial de San Timoteo le gustaría ayudar a apoyar la recaudación de fondos para el Comité Tappahannock Strong. El comité está utilizando los fondos para ayudar a las familias que perdieron sus hogares en el incendio, así como a los empleados de las empresas que se perdieron. Tomaremos pedidos para el equipo que se vende este fin de semana, 20 y 21 de agosto. Todos los pedidos deben ir acompañados del pago de los artículos pedidos. Sin devoluciones ni cambios. Hay dos colores disponibles: blanco y azul claro. Los cheques deben hacerse a "Tappahannock Strong".

Nuestra próxima segunda colección es el 28 de agosto para aire acondicionado.

Joke of the Week

Broad gate of addictions:

A guy walks into a bar, orders three shots and downs them all. “What’s up with the three shots?” asks the bartender. “My two closest buddies and I have gone our separate ways, and I miss them terribly,” says the guy. “See, this glass here is for Tom, this one’s Bob, and this one’s mine. I feel like we’re all drinking together, just like old times.” So, every day the guy comes in and the bartender sets up three glasses. Until one day, the guy asks for just two shots. “I hate to ask,” says the bartender, “but did something happen to one of your friends?” “Nah, they’re okay,” says the guy. “I myself just decided to quit drinking.” — I told you it was terrible. But I doubt that this guy really has decided to quit drinking, don’t you?
