This weekend we welcome Father Robert E. Nee, a Cross Catholic Outreach priest. He will share some touching stories about the amazing work Catholic missions are accomplishing worldwide.

This Catholic ministry mobilizes the global Catholic Church to transform the poor and their communities materially and spiritually through specific works of mercy in Christ's name. They connect U.S. parishes with priests, religious brothers and sisters, and Catholic laity serving the vulnerable in developing countries. Through this extremely cost effective program they bring food, water, shelter, education, orphan support, medical care, elderly care, microenterprise and disaster relief to the poorest of the poor.

Please consider donating to this worthy cause.

Joke of the Week

When Christian Herter (March 28,1895—December 30, 1966) was governor of Massachusetts, he was running hard for a second term in office. One day, after a busy morning chasing votes (without lunch), he arrived at a church barbecue. It was late afternoon and Herter was famished. As Herter moved down the serving line, he held out his plate to the woman serving chicken. She put a piece on his plate and turned to the next person in line. “Excuse me,” Governor Herter said, “do you mind if I have another piece of chicken?” “Sorry,” the woman told him. “I’m supposed to give one piece of chicken to each person because you are going to get other food items also from other servers.” “But I’m starved, and I love chicken,” the governor said. “Sorry,” the woman said again. “Only one to a customer.” Governor Herter was a modest and unassuming man, but he decided that this time he would throw a little weight around. “Do you know who I am?” he said. “I am the governor of this state!” “Do you know who I am?” the woman retorted. “I’m the lady in charge of the chicken. Move along, mister.”

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS IN ACTION

Support for the Recitation of the Holy Rosary

We all know the importance of praying the Holy Rosary, and the promises Mary made concerning this devotion. On Tuesday August 23rd the Knights of Columbus across the state of Virginia recited the Holy Rosary via a special Zoom meeting. Hundreds of Knights and their families prayed for our Country, the Catholic Church, and an end to abortion.

Locally the Knights of Columbus Council 10578 prays the Holy Rosary on the first and third Wednesdays of the month. We do this at 7:00 pm before our meeting. We encourage anyone who would like to pray with us to join us in St Jude Hall.

If you would like to learn more about joining us for the Rosary or if you are interested in joining the Knights of Columbus here at St Timothy’s, please contact Ed Sullivan at desulliva@aol.com.
