JOKE OF THE WEEK

Rescue Mission to Egypt

His mother asked nine-year-old Joey what he had learned in Sunday school. “Well, Mom,” he reported, “our teacher told us how God sent Moses behind enemy lines on a rescue mission to lead the Israelites out of Egypt. When he got to the Red Sea, he ordered his engineers to build a pontoon bridge, and all the people walked across safely. He used his walkie-talkie to radio headquarters to call in an air strike. They sent in bombers to blow up the bridge and all the Israelites were saved. “Now, Joey, is that REALLY what your teacher taught you?” his mother asked. “Well, no, Mom,” Joey admitted, “but if I told it the way the teacher did, you’d never believe it!”

In Sincere Appreciation

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the KonKons Family, I want to express my sincere gratitude to all our brothers and sisters in Christ, generous volunteers, fellow artists, TAG members, clergy, caregivers, doctors, neighbours, fellow teachers, and all other guests and family friends, who honored Liliyanna with their exclusive presence in the middle of a working day. My special gratitude goes to those groups and individuals who made this Funeral Mass & Wonderful Reception possible: Father Gerald - for his passionate presentation, Ken and the choir - for the lovely performance of Mama's favorite song, the Knights of Columbus and the Women's Group who prepared an amazingly delicious reception! I'm still in easily understandable stress, and if I somewhat missed to mention someone I beg your forgiveness.

Mama loved you, Konstantina loved you, so I love you all! ❤️❤️❤️

Sincerely yours,
Ignat of the KonKons
