Our Missionary Legacy

Today is World Mission Sunday. We join Catholics around the globe in supporting the mission of the Church in places where the faith is young, growing, or facing particular challenges. It's important to remember the legacy of missionary work. The Church in the United States was once mission territory, supported by the generosity of Catholics worldwide.

Today, we continue this legacy by supporting the Pontifical Mission Societies, ensuring that the Gospel reaches the ends of the earth. This is a unique opportunity for us to support the Church's mission work in over 1,150 territories worldwide. Our prayers and contributions help build churches, train clergy, and provide essential services to those in need.

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, one of four Pontifical Mission Societies and the one behind the World Mission Sunday efforts, began when a French laywoman, over 200 years ago, answered her brother's request for prayers for his mission as a priest in Africa. She summoned her friends into prayer groups, asking them to pray daily and give a penny a week to the Church in the missions. Those first pennies, however, didn't go to her brother: they came to her, to the great Diocese of Louisiana. This collection of pennies became what, in 1926, Pope Pius XI called World Mission Sunday.

Your generous contributions today will make a significant impact on the lives of many and help spread the Gospel message to all corners of the world. Your contributions help build and sustain communities of faith in places where the Church is still growing or facing persecution. This mission is a testament to our faith in action, reflecting the universal call to share Christ's love. As we reflect on this year's theme, "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," let us recommit to supporting our global Church family.

If you need a ride to vote, please call the office.

DEL PASTOR

Nuestro Legado Misionero

Hoy es el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones. Nos unimos a los católicos de todo el mundo para apoyar la misión de la Iglesia en lugares donde la fe es joven, está creciendo o enfrenta desafíos particulares. Es importante recordar el legado del trabajo misionero. La Iglesia en los Estados Unidos fue una vez territorio de misión, apoyado por la generosidad de los católicos de todo el mundo.

Hoy, continuamos este legado apoyando a las Obras Misionales Pontificias, asegurando que el Evangelio llegue a los confines de la tierra. Esta es una oportunidad única para que apoyemos el trabajo misionero de la Iglesia en más de 1.150 territorios en todo el mundo. Nuestras oraciones y contribuciones ayudan a construir iglesias, capacitar al clero y brindar servicios esenciales a los necesitados.

La Sociedad para la Propagación de la Fe, una de las cuatro Obras Misionales Pontificias y la que está detrás de los esfuerzos del Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, comenzó cuando una laica francesa, hace más de 200 años, respondió al pedido de oraciones de su hermano por su misión como sacerdote en África. Convocó a sus amigos a grupos de oración y les pidió que rezaran diariamente y donaran un centavo por semana a la Iglesia en las misiones. Sin embargo, esos primeros centavos no fueron para su hermano: llegaron a ella, a la gran diócesis de Luisiana. Esta colecta de centavos se convirtió en lo que, en 1926, el Papa Pío XI llamó el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones.

Sus generosas contribuciones de hoy tendrán un impacto significativo en las vidas de muchas personas y ayudarán a difundir el mensaje del Evangelio a todos los rincones del mundo. Sus contribuciones ayudan a construir y sostener comunidades de fe en lugares donde la Iglesia aún está creciendo o enfrenta persecución. Esta misión es un testimonio de nuestra fe en acción, que refleja el llamado universal a compartir el amor de Cristo. Al reflexionar sobre el tema de este año, "Vayan e inviten a todos al banquete", comprometámonos nuevamente a apoyar a nuestra familia de la Iglesia mundial.

Corrección del Boletín de la Semana Pasada:

JOKE OF THE WEEK

And Hell Broke Loose

Mark Twain used to tell a joke that he put a dog and a cat in a cage together as an experiment, to see if they could get along. They did. So he put in a bird, pig and goat. They, too, got along fine after a few adjustments. Then he put in a Baptist, a Presbyterian, and a Catholic, and hell broke loose.

You can even designate an optional legacy gift to support the future of St. Timothy's or another ministry you love. Visit FreeWill.com/RichmondCatholicFoundation to get started.
